

This is a detailed historical map of Oxford, Massachusetts, likely from the 18th or 19th century. The map shows the town's layout, including streets, buildings, and surrounding areas. The name 'OXFORD' is prominently displayed in the center. The map is covered with numerous names of residents and their addresses, such as 'J. Smith', 'J. Jones', and 'J. Brown'. The map also shows the town's boundaries, the location of the town hall, and the surrounding countryside. The map is oriented with North at the top.